Great Commoner Spends Day in Wordy War Over the Bennett Will.

PASS ON THE SEALED LETTER

Judge Gager Gives His Opinion This Morning-Case Hangs on Décision.

(By Associated Fress.) NEW HAVEN, CONN., March 30.-Further sensational incidents marked the second day's hearing on tehappeal of William J. Bryan from the Probate Court in the Superior Court to-day be-

Court in the Superior Court to-day before Judge Gager.

Former Judge Stoddard, counsel for Mrs. Bennett and Mr. Brydn engaged in a wordy war during the incruing session, and the court had to intervene, it followed immediately after reference to the correspondence between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Bennett had been made by Judge Stoddard, in which it was alleged that \(\Delta r\). Bennett was brought to the point of writing the "sealed letter" by Mr. Bryan Judge Stoddard implied that Mr. Bryan was withholding their contents, and said, "If this man insists upen getting $50,000 from the widow by suppressing facts and showing that these letters were written at his behest, the court should know the facts."

Mr. Bryan jumped to his feet and in-

should know the facts."

Mr. Bryan jumped to his feet and insisted that Judge Stoddard had misstated the facts, but the court ordered him to sit down. The letters referred to are said to contain an announcement of the intention of Mr. Bennett to with draw the letter he had fiready written in which he had expressed a wish that Bryan should have $50,000 from his

Mr. Bryan should have $50,000 from his estate.

CHANGED HIS MIND.

At the hearing in the Probate Court it was stated that although Mr. Bennett at one time desired Mr. Bryan to have $50,000 in accordance with the terms of the "sealed letter," he had changed his intention, and had he lived, he would sooner or later have withdrawn the letter which is now in controversy.

The day was taken up entirely by arguments on the question of admitting the "scaled letter," Judge Stoddard concluding the argument that he began yes-cluding the argument that he began yescluding the argument that he began yescluding the argument that he ognit year terday. He declared that the admission of the latter would be "contrary to all law in Connecticut framed to prohibit fraud, undue influence and imposition." He was followed by Attorney Hewitt, after which Attorney Newton addressed the court for over two hours, showing the relation between Mr. Bryan and Mr. nett, the reasons for appeal and facts now that the admission of the "sealed his source in inners, and as account to the purpose to fulfill the trust made by Mr. Bennett to the letter." Judge Gager will rule on the admission of the "sealed letter" to-morrow morning.

Judging by the universal interest in the event, the crowd from this city that will go down to Newport News to the launching of the buttleship Virginia next Tuesday will tax the capacity of the Chesapeake and Ohio Raliway to convey them. The road has at its command a total of more than one hundred coaches and will dispatch trains from this city as apidly as they can be backed into the station, filled and pulled out. Employment of White Man.

Fourteen negro drivers of baggage wagons of the Richmond Transfer Company have quit work there, owing to the employment of a white man, and their places are being filled as rapidly as possible by white men. The company hopes to maintain its service with white drivers, instead of negroes, and will make the crfort to do so.

Transfer men say that the past winter has been an unusually hard one on baggage wagon drivers, owing to the fact that trains have been more generally irregular and delayed than for years.
This is partly due to the rough weather,
The delay of trains necessitates keeping the drivers at work many hours, and many of them are up all night. This and the heavy work of handling trunks in large quantities make the lot of the baggage wagoner a hard one at best, it is difficult to got white men who can stand the hardship and who will do so for the wages paid.

It is alleged that besides the four jurors who are said to have been influenced, an attempt was made to bribe a fifth one. Mrs. Botkin's attorney made a passionate speech, disclaiming that Mrs. Botkin or any one connected with her case was implicated. He also said that he would not continue with the present jury. The State's attorney concurred in a restion to discharge the jury. A brief investigation was held by Judge Cook after the jury left the room. Chief of Police Wittman testified that one of the jurors had followed him to his office after the moon adjournment yesterday, and said that on the provious evening a stranger had called on him and said:

Ing a stranger and caned on this and sold:

"We have secured four jurors for the defense, and want a fifth. We will give you $50."

The juror told the chief that he turned down the offer, asserting, "That I am no such dirty man. I would not take $50 nor $50,000."

The subject was further discussed by Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana, who said that in the last twenty-five years 3.00 citizens of the United States who were entitled to the protection of the law had been selzed by lawless mobs and put to death. He believed that throughout the langth and breadth of the United States the people are a unit in desiring to have the law enforced everywhere. Mob law, he declared, is not sectional. "I confess," he said, "that the record of the last twenty-five years will show that my own twenty-five years will show that my own twenty-five years will show that my own State has had its full share of those disgraceful exhibitions of lack of control on the part of the people," all of which, he said, illustrated the weakness of human nature, which was about the same throughout the whole country.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings in the history of the East End Gun Club was held in the officers of Messrs, Harris, Flippen and Company last night. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected.

Volcather, Jr., president: Clarence Committy the resultent; Jr. A. Anderson, secretary and treasurer; H. C. Boudars assistant secretary and scorer.

Three new shooters foined the club, and applications were received from others, who signified their desire to become member. The membership is now about twonteshive, among whom are some of the best target men in the State. A committee was appointed to arrange the traps so as to throw the targets above the sky line, which will make this club grounds in the city.

Active was read from Mr. H. C. Boudar, who is now rustleating in the nine groves of South Carolina. It was expressed by the club that its assistant secretary be soon restored to his natural healt, and ere the roses bloom again he may return to his native heath to join the squad of target pulverizers.

The club appointed each member a committee to make the Fourth of July the greatest one-day tournament over held in the State, A. The migroupping at 3:30 o'clock.

The sales on the local tobacco market will end to-day until next Wednesday when the breaks will resume activity. The market will be closed on Good Friday and on Tucsday, when the launching of the Virginia will occur at Newport News. The sales for the week were fairly large, but the receipts have fallen off considerably. The wagon trade is about over, and the tobacco that comes now is mostly shipped. One of the leading ware-housemen said last night that prices of common tobacco—le cents and under—are still holding up well. He thought there was omewhat of a decline in the higher grades.
